Jr. High Males and Females -

Junior High division will be grouped into pools unless numbers are large then we will bracket them into Junior high weight classes. Send in exact weights to the tenths in Kilograms. If you have an experienced wrestler please star them (make note for us) and we will try matching experienced wrestlers together if possible.

High School Novice division is for inexperienced wrestlers so coaches please be mindful when entering athletes.

Registration:

Registrations must be received by no later than 9:00 pm on Wednesday, Nov 30. There will be no weigh-in at the tournament so coaches please be accurate with your weights. Registrations can only be done by spreadsheet: We will not accept anything else (it will be rejected). These documents and spreadsheet are also available on the school's website at wrps.ab.ca, go to Wetaskiwin Comp High School and click on Sabres wrestling.

Kids Ages 9 to 10	1 round – 3 minute - run time
Novice Ages 7 to 8	1 round – 3 minute - run time
Bantam Ages 11 to 12	1 round – 3 minute - run time

Tournament Rules:

Elementary Takedown

- First wrestler to get 3 takedowns before time runs out.
- Once a wrestler is taken down they will be called back to standing, there will be no points or pins awarded.
- If there is a tie at the end of the three minutes, the wrestler that had the last takedown wins.
- Illegal moves are in accordance with AAWA rules for Tyke through Bantam (which includes no head and arms)

To determine wrestlers placing:

- Win/Loss ratio
- If there is a tie between wrestlers, it will go to wrestler with the most cumulative takedowns.

Junior High

- As per AAWA Junior High

High School

- As per ASAA rules

Mouth guards mandatory for all competitors
