MEMBERSHIP POLICY

The Alberta Amateur Wrestling Association (AAWA) is committed to providing a safe and supportive environment for all our members. Membership in the AAWA has many benefits but also comes with responsibilities. Potential members should familiarize themselves with all AAWA policies.

Membership application will be deemed “pending” until all requirements have been met.

- Online application completed in full
- Appropriate signed Code of Conduct forms received by the AAWA office
- Screening results as required
- Applicable fees paid

IMPORTANT NOTE:

- Anyone applying for membership in the AAWA who is a member not in good standing with another provincial wrestling association or Wrestling Canada may not be approved for AAWA membership. This will be determined by the AAWA Executive Board and may also include Legal Counsel.
- If AAWA Executive Board has been notified of an investigation by Law Enforcement that the member applicant is the subject of a criminal investigation of a matter that contradicts the AAWA Code of Conduct the membership application may be suspended until the matter can be resolved. This will be determined by the AAWA Executive Board and may also include Legal Counsel.
- If a member applicant has been criminally convicted of any offence that contradicts the AAWA Code of Conduct their membership application may be denied. This will be determined by the AAWA Executive Board and may also include Legal Counsel.
- If a member applicant has been criminally convicted of any offences pertaining to:

Child Pornography Sexual Offences Physical or Psychological Violence

The membership application will be denied.
